Ann Bachman

Leader: "On the night Jesus was betrayed, He took the bread and broke it. He thanked God as He said to His disciples...

People: ... 'This is My body given for you; do this in remembrance of Me.'

Leader: On that same night, Jesus lifted His cup of wine, thanked His Father and said...

People: ... 'This is my blood, poured out for you, for the forgiveness of your sins; a token of the new and everlasting covenant. Do this in remembrance of Me.'"

Leader: Let us praise the Lord!

People: The Lord's name be praised!

+The Unison Prayer of Thanksgiving (together please!)

"O God, Our Heavenly Father, we thank You for all things beautiful and good which You have made. We praise You for all the joy and happiness of our lives; for the land of our birth; for the homes in which we live; for our family and friends and for the privilege of loving and serving humanity in Your name! We praise You that You sent the Lord Jesus Christ to us as a child; that He gave us the example of how we ought to live; that He died for us upon the cross; that He rose again from the dead, and ever prays for us.

+Please stand

Help us to remember to love You with all our hearts, for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with You and the Holy Spirit, be the glory and praise forever and ever. Amen."

Who are Cumberland Presbyterians?

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church is a distinctive denomination of worldwide Presbyterians. We enjoy a rich heritage beginning in "Cumberland Country" of the American frontier. We evolved out of the Presbyterian Church USA. Cumberland Presbyterian churches and missions are located primarily across the southeastern and southwestern sectors of the United States and in six countries around the world. Additional information on the origin and doctrines of the church is yours simply by asking for it when you sign the card in the visitors' folder.
