ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

Each year on Palm Sunday First Church receives a special free-will offering for “One Great Hour of Sharing.” OGHS is a joint effort by a large number of churches to help meet emergency needs and offer self-help development for the poor around the world. You can participate by using the pew envelopes provided this Palm Sunday, April 17. Include your gift in the offering plates as they are passed. God bless you for your generosity!

DELIVER AN EASTER LILY THIS YEAR!

We have ordered ___ Easter lilies to adorn the sanctuary and the homes of our recovering and shut-in members and friends during our celebration of the Resurrection. If you would like to bless a fellow believer this Easter, please check the bulletin board outside the church office and sign up following the cantata this Palm Sunday, April 17. Deliveries need to be made during Holy Week, April 17-23.

CANDY AND PLASTIC EGGS NEEDED!

We still are in need of lots of Easter candy and plastic eggs for our annual Community Easter Egg Hunt, Saturday, April 23, 11:30 a.m. We also need adults to help with preparation and cleanup of the hot dog luncheon. Please bring your candy and eggs by this Sunday, April 17 and place in the boxes provided in the narthex. If you can help with the luncheon contact Steve and Kim McCurry (690-1601) or the church office (588-8581).

CHANGE OF LOCATION FOR EARLY SERVICE

We are switching the location for our Early Service on Easter Sunday, April 24, 7:30 a.m. Originally scheduled for the front lawn, we are moving the service to the courtyard. Dr. J. David Hester will deliver the message followed by our traditional 8:30 a.m. breakfast in the gym hosted by the Cornerstone Class (donations accepted).
