+Affirmation of Our Faith (together please)
 “The judgment of God is both present and future. Persons experience God’s judgment in many forms, including broken relationships with God and others, the guilt and consequences of their own actions, and the sense of anxiety that comes from lack of confidence in God’s faithfulness and the purpose of life.
 God’s judgment is experienced in history in the freedom of persons and nations to choose to engage in such evils as war, civil strife, slavery, oppression, destruction of natural resources, and political and economic exploitation. God abhors all such acts which cause needless suffering and death.
 God’s judgment transcends this life, ever standing against all human attempts to deny dependence on God and to live without repentance, faith, and love. Those who reject God’s salvation in Jesus Christ remain alienated from God and in hopeless bondage to sin and death, which is hell.
 In the consummation of history, at the coming of Jesus Christ, the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdom of the Lord and of the Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever. Amen.” (Cumberland Presbyterian Confession of Faith, 7.05-7.08, pp. 23-24)
