Leader: It is God's way of preparing us in every way!

People: He is fully equipping us for every good thing He wants us to do!"

+The Affirmation of Faith (in unison)

"God inspired persons of the covenant community to write the Scriptures. In and through the Scriptures God speaks about creation, sin, judgment, salvation, the church, and the growth of believers. The Scriptures are the infallible rule of faith and practice, the authoritative guide for Christian living.

God's word spoken in and through the Scriptures should be understood in the light of the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. The authority of the Scriptures is founded on the truth contained in them and the voice of God speaking through them.

In order to understand God's word spoken in and through the Scriptures, persons must have the illumination of God's own Spirit. Moreover they should study the writings of the Bible in their historical settings, compare Scripture with Scripture, listen to the witness of the church throughout the centuries, and share insights with others in the covenant community." (from the Confession of Faith, pp. 1-2)

Who are Cumberland Presbyterians?

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church is a distinctive denomination of worldwide Presbyterians. We enjoy a rich heritage beginning in "Cumberland Country" of the American frontier. We evolved out of the Presbyterian Church USA. Cumberland Presbyterian churches and missions are located primarily across the southeastern and southwestern sectors of the United States and in six countries around the world. Additional information on the origin and doctrines of the church is yours simply by asking for it when you sign the card in the visitors' folder.

PLEASE NOTE: In order to maintain a worshipful atmosphere, we ask that you please refrain from bringing beverages and food into the sanctuary, please check your shoes during inclement weather, and please turn off all non-emergency communication devices. Thank you!
