Our Weekly Newsletter

"Loving God, Loving People"

December 28, 2016

What a wonderful Candlelight Communion Service we had last Saturday night. The spirit of worship was contagious, and I cannot put into words how pleased I was with the attendance. Thank you for inviting so many of your family members and friends to join us on this special occasion as we gathered to celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior. Our list of guests is simply to long for me to publish in the newsletter, but a crowd like we had on Christmas Eve gives me great hope for our future. Truly, God is great and worthy to be praised!

I recently came across this anonymous quote, "No one can go back and start a new beginning, but anyone can start today and make a new ending." With New Year's Day approaching, I began to think about that statement. My conclusion was that we do not actually start over as in our past did not happen, but instead, we begin again right where we are. As followers of the risen Jesus, it is not about saying that we will do this and we will not do that, and then forgetting our resolutions or falling short of attaining them. It is more about asking the Lord to help us each day to fall deeper and deeper in love with Him. This way our focus will be set on the things of heaven and not on all the earthly stuff that seems to constantly demand our attention. If I were to make a New Year's resolution, it would be to have a deeper commitment, a deeper love, and a deeper worship for the Lord. Several years ago, the Lord spoke to me in that still small voice in prayer and said, "I am more than enough—I am more than enough in every area of your life." I am convinced that He wants me to tell others the same thing. This year I am determined to make Christ my all and all; will you join me on this journey? He wants our undivided attention in spite of the distractions and temptations that lie waiting around the corner. He has to be our main focus. How we will end 2017 will be largely determined by how we started it. If you are not a Christian, please know that this could be the best year of your life. Your life can be filled with hope and peace as your Lord and Savior. Why should every year be the same as the one before with nothing really changing? After all, our New Year's resolutions may or may not get accomplished. If you are a Christian and you feel stagnate in your relationship with the Lord, then now is the time to rekindle your love affair with Him. Jesus calls us to Himself and says, "'Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." [Matthew 11:28, RSV Can you hear Him? He is tugging at our hearts.

Learning the unforced rhythms of grace,

Pastor Mike

Holiday Ministry Opportunities

- * Thank all of you who contributed gifts to the "Angel Tree". Monday morning, December 19th, Jewell Kerr, along with Judy and Alan Gwilliams, sorted the three gifts for each of the twelve recipients, and then John and Jewell Kerr transported them to the Serene Manor Nursing Home. They were very appreciative of all the gifts many of the patients have no family at all, so we helped to make Christmas brighter for some of them. Thank you one and all for your assistance in this very important ministry that we want to continue for many years.
- * We will taking all the "Mitten Tree" items up to the Coalition for Appalachian Ministry (CAM) Mission House in Townsend sometime the first part of January.
- * To those who participated in the FISH Hospitality Pantries Gift Cards this year, we thank you. You have helped to feed the hungry in our community.
